

Celebrating Human Differences

WORD	DEFINITION	EXAMPLE
respect	a feeling of admiration and acceptance for someone or their views	It's important to respect customs that are different from your own. stereotype	a fixed, oversimplified idea about a group of people	It's a stereotype to assume everyone from a country acts the same way. prejudice	an unfair negative opinion formed without real knowledge	Prejudice often comes from fear of what is unfamiliar. tolerance	willingness to accept beliefs or behaviour different from your own	Tolerance means respecting differences, not necessarily agreeing with them. background	a person's family, social class, or cultural origin	People from many different backgrounds work at this company. community	a group of people living together or sharing common interests	The local community celebrated the festival together. language	a system of communication used by a particular group of people	There are more than 7,000 languages spoken in the world today. belief	something a person accepts as true, often religious or moral	Everyone is entitled to their own religious beliefs. minority	a smaller group within a larger population	Minority communities sometimes face unfair treatment. inclusion	making sure everyone feels welcome and valued	Schools that practise inclusion tend to be happier places.